Discovery Bay Wine List

Medium Glass - 175ml £4.95

Large Glass - 250ml £6.50

White Wine

House Sauvignon Blanc Semillon £16.95

A fruity bouquet with the refreshing, flavours of un-oaked Sauvignon and Semillon.
An excellent quality with fruit that bursts onto your palate.
Delicious with seafood or poultry.

San Vigilio Pinot Grigio (Italian) £17.95

Exactly what you would expect from a good Pinot Grigio.
Lean elegant but with the added bonus of flavour.

Tivento Tribu Viognier (Argentinean) £19.95

Peaches, apricots and a dash of nutmeg all wrapped up with some lovely fresh acidity.

Artesa Wine Rioja (Spanish) £19.95

White Rioja used to be a bit fuddy-duddy but nowadays it's got a whole new lease of life. Perfect with seafood.

Rose Wine

Ancora Pinot Grigio Rose (Italian) £17.95

Off-dry and lighter style of rose which is dangerously easy drinking, you have been warned.

Big Top Zinfandel (USA) £18.95

A sweeter rose with wonderfully fresh flavours and cream soda hints.

Frontera Merlot Rose (Chilean) £18.95

Full flavoured rose with a beautiful creamy texture and a lovely weight of fruit.

Red Wines

House Merlot (Chilean) £16.95

Absolutely wonderful wine, this is one of those wines that once you try it you'll fall head over heels in love with it, so what are you waiting for?

McGuigans Black Label (Australian) £16.95

A ridiculously easy drinking and oh so fruity red, once you tried it it isn't hard to see why it's so popular.

Vignobles du Sud Cabernet Sauvignon (French) £18.95

A lighter style of Cabernet from the South of France with mid weight blackcurrant softness. A lovely glass of wine.

Soldiers Block Shiraz (Australian) £19.95

Rich dark bramble fruit with a chocolatey texture and a hint of pepper.
This is exactly what a heart warming Aussie red should be like, a real beauty.
